

MCC - (Multi Crew Cooperation)

In order to obtain permission for the type of aircraft with multi-pilot candidate should completed training in multi-crew co-operation. This condition is not required if the MCC course is on the scope of training for the type rating.

MCC training includes:

- 25 hours of theoretical training
- 20 hours of training practical and may be divided into modules.

Theoretical and practical training in accordance with FCL.735.A must be completed within 6 months from the start of training.

The condition of the course is to have a private pilot license PPL / IR or CPL / IR.

The training of the MCC may be connected only to an integrated training according ATPL purpose of this training

